The soft undertones deliver the designer's flair for timeless drama

The neutral-themed sitting room was styled to be a soothing sanctuary with soft, romantic tones, curvaceous custom-made sofas and a playful, monochrome paint-splattered rug, which exaggerates the large proportions of the space. Above floats a vintage alabaster chandelier in limestone, bronze, brass and pearlescent resin pigment, anchoring the whole room. Floor-to-ceiling windows, parquet flooring, and balcony doors that open right to the 16th arrondissement of Paris are suggestive of the pockets of poetry that have built this cit
