A Paris Apartment Defined by Art & Ceramics

On today's episode of Homeworthy, we're in Paris for a captivating tour of the apartment of Emma Donnersberg—an internationally celebrated furniture and interior designer whose work blurs the line between art and function. Emma's home is a visual journey—defined by sculptural furniture, striking ceramics, and an incredible collection of art.

Her design philosophy is rooted in intuition and inspired by the shapes, colors, and textures found in nature. Each space she creates feels alive, animated with movement and meaning.

With studios in both Paris and New York, Emma has become a globally recognized voice in the design world. Her work is regularly featured at renowned fairs like PAD and Design Miami, and today we're stepping into the dreamlike world she's created right at home.
